

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Otto Wise of San Francisco is visiting his bro. Steve for a few days.

Buck Weaver of the White Sox will be in our midst next week. Watch him, say we, he being the best shortstop in his respective league.

Those who think being Ed. of a paper like this is easy ought to see us make the paper up, it being more work than lots of editors do in a whole week, inclusive.

Art James of here and Flushing quits to-day the Morning Telegraph where he has been working for some time. Art is going in the M—P—bus., having accepted a lucrative position with the Mutual Film Co. Good luck Art is the way we and all his other friends feel about it.

Sen. Aldrich of R. I. was a Gotham passer through Thurs. and was asked about what Charley Mellen said about him. Sen. Aldrich was strangely calm, like he always is about things like that.

THE GAZETTE'S Boston cor. Eddie, has got a job running a column on the editorial page of the Boston Globe. Eddie got his first real experience working for the G. W. G. and we are glad to see him come ahead he being a man of keen perspicacity and everything.

Miss Jessie Henderson of Boston is Gothaming this week trying to land a job on some newspaper. Strictly as a matter of news and not an advertisement, we hereby tell editors that Jessie is a wonder.

& which has nothing to do with the matter in hand that is the quality of the play he is witnessing. For now we will only say that whatever Artie says of an opprobrious nature be it his own words or those of others about motion pictures is an unwarranted attack on something which he does not understand so don't read it or if you have been so unfortunate forget it which last is probably an admonition of which there is no need of.

BROOKLYN BITS

—We don't know whether it is the hot weather or what it is but news is so scarce this wk. we could scarcely discover any hereabouts in this village.

—The tel. co. has put a 'phone in our residence now & people desiring to have news in THE GAZETTE can have same in without paying postage.

—At 5:30 p. m. Wed. the motorman of Union st. car No. 1041 REFUSED to STOP HIS CAR for ye cor. & 1/2 at a certain corner on Fulton st. If we was Prexy Tim Wms of the B. R. T. we would have that motorman up on the carpet & instruct him to stop at proper places for passengers whether he feels like doing so or not. Motormen with TEMPERAMENTS like that we are NOT IN FAVOR OF.

—John Gowdy, the vice-rear-admiral, retired, actually PURCHASED a newspaper 1 day this wk. (Ed.—Run this sure, as Johnny will know what we mean o. k. even if you don't.)

—100 to 1 Norm Hapgood don't reprint this item about him in his magazine. How about that, Norm?

Long Beach Breezes

Bernard Gimble, Gotham merchant, was a pleasant nodder to your correspondent here.

It was reported Gotham's Mayor, J. Purroy Mitchel was here, walking, but we did not see him.

Sam Harris must have a grouch. We have known Sam a baker's dozen of years, but he did not speak. Didn't you see us Sammie?

Youngster F. Ward O'Malley, cub reporter, had our name in his paper, calling us ancient. Thus the reason for this cutting reference to him. The news in this item is that he says he is coming here soon.

Otto Tripp, Gotham's hustling advertising man, is thinking of building a wire fence here; also having his street lighted. Personal note: Tell this to J. G. G. Otto.

Earle Williams, movie hero, also actor and good looking, ate a few of our cherries and lighted one of our guests cigars here.

A well-known Gothamite and Westchester fleeting resident was here, but asked us not to mention it, for some mysterious reason. Oh, if THE GAZETTE was only a society weekly!

Teddie Rousseau, Gotham's Mayor's Secretary, has taken a house here for the Summer, promising to return it in the Fall.

Billy Wells, Macy's right hand, assisted by your correspondent, defeated *—Darby and A. T. Smith, Cole's main spring, 4 sets to 0 in tennis.

*Don't know first name.

We have four new beach chairs. We will lug them to the beach for feminine members we like, but not for any masculine, unless he is legless.
